The story of Sally

Hi, my name is Sally Williams. I am the daughter of Caroline and Eric Williams. I love toys. I wanted a teddy bear but i' could not find the one I wanted. One day, a new toyshop opened in my town, I decided to go there to find my teddy bear. Inside, I had a bad feeling. The toymaker was strange and the toys too.

I asked him suddenly : «- Do you sell teddy bears ?

- Yes, I do ! I said

- I have six different kinds of teddy bear.»

I was very happy because he had the one I wanted. I called my mum on her mobile : «- Mum, can you pay, I haven't got money with me.»

She came at the shop to pay the toymaker.

He asked me if it was for a present and I replied : «- Yes, it was for Christmas.»

So, he pocked it with a wonderful paper and he added a very nice ribbon. I really enjoyed this day.
